

About Roade English Hub....

Roade English Hub provides support to local schools, academies and free schools to improve teaching of phonics, early language and reading.

We have a team of highly trained literacy specialists that work with our Hub Lead and Hub Coordinator to provide training and support to schools. All the support we offer to schools is free and fully funded by the DfE.

Schools can contact us through our website www.roadeenglishhub.co.uk to leave their contact details, book on an event or complete a self referral form. We can't wait to hear from you!

What we can offer your school...

Funding, support and audits to support the development of phonics in your school

Sustained research based courses lasting the full year on Reading for Pleasure and Early Language

One off sessions on vocabulary development and early language

Online "Ask a Literacy Specialist" sessions where schools can book an individual slot with a Literacy Specialist

Guest Speakers and CPD sessions throughout the year
