

Leicester History Network

www.leltsh-tmet.uk

The Leicester History Network is a friendly, experienced and passionate group of History teachers and Subject Leads from across the City and County, co-ordinated by Ashley Bartlett. Colleagues from both primary and secondary schools are welcome. The network meets throughout the academic year to hear from expert speakers, share resources, debate, challenge and collaborate.

Embedding Local History

Gertie Whitfield has been working with Ismail Dale from Historic England to develop classroom resources focussing on Chartism in Leicester. She will introduce these and share how they can be used to provide a powerful element of local history within our curricula, as well as taking feedback from the Network Members.

Tuesday, 31st January 2023 New date

'Industrial revolution or evolution? Just how dramatic were the Great Changes, and how can we make them interesting at KS3 in a post-industrial society?'

Alf Wilkinson will address this question, providing a fresh perspective on teaching the industrial revolution at KS3. Alf brings a wealth of experience, having been a Head of History, Head of CPD for the Historical Association, authored numerous text books and advised on National Curriculum changes and edited Primary History Magazine.
