Leicester & Leicestershire Teaching School Hub

PRIMARY HISTORY / PRACTICAL WEBINAR

Adaption & Inclusion

in the Primary History Classroom

One knowledge-rich curriculum.
Access for every pupil.

THURSDAY 14 JANUARY 2027
4pm | Online webinar

£50
per person

Make primary history accessible to all

Explore how to adapt teaching and learning so that barriers are effectively overcome and all pupils can access the same knowledge-rich history curriculum, from EYFS to Year 6.

- Overcome barriers
  Practical approaches to adapting primary history teaching.
- Draw on strong practice
  Recent ideas and strategies from Primary History Quality Mark schools.

LED BY

Andrew Wrenn

History specialist and honorary fellow of the Historical Association

An experienced teacher, trainer and writer, former local authority adviser, and author and co-author of educational materials, articles and books. Andrew is also a national assessor for the Primary History Quality Mark.

To book a place, please visit www.bookwhen.com/teachingschool